

ACTIVITY REPORT – 2021

Mahila manch of Navachetana social work centre under Kutch Jyothi trust is actively involved in its mission of women empowerment even amidst this pandemic season. Now we have more than 500 groups under 8 centres and nearly 5000 women are part of this programme. They are carrying out their entrusted responsibilities with total commitment by vigorously working on various income generation plans in order to improve their life status. Women of all groups gather together to discuss on the group activities on a monthly basis and coordinate future expansion programmes. Members of these groups are well versed in micro-financing and they take inter-loans to support their day today life. They strictly follow the instructions given especially in case of returning of money and keeping updated records. Regular visits are conducted from the main offices in order to verify related records and accounts. As a whole, various commendable activities for women empowerment are in progress under Navachetana.
